

Anti- Bullying Week

This week we have taken part in Anti-Bullying Week and this began by celebrating Odd Socks Day on Monday where we celebrated our individuality and uniqueness. During this week the children have explored friendship and what bullying looks like as well as how to deal with it and the effects this has on our wellbeing. There is an information pack for parents attached to this email

Year 3 Class Mass

Year 3 led a wonderful parish Mass on Thursday on the theme of Community. They read, sang and prayed beautifully and it was great to see the parish and family members there to support them.

Year 6 in High Borran

After a slightly delayed start due to terrible weather conditions, our Y6 pupils enjoyed a very wet but fun-filled week in High Borran. They have had lots of new experiences and made memories to last a life time!
